THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPEL

Joseph, described as a 'righteous man,' planned to divorce Mary quietly rather than expose her to public shame. His righteousness was not about strict legalism but was tempered with profound mercy. How can I blend my commitment to what is right with a spirit of compassion and grace towards others, especially when I feel wronged?

God's guidance came to Joseph at a moment of deep personal crisis and confusion, through a dream. This reminds us that divine revelation often meets us in our uncertainty. In the 'quiet dreams' of my life – in moments of prayer, silence, or wise counsel – am I creating space to listen for God's direction even when your own plans are falling apart?

Joseph's obedience was immediate, and he took Mary as his wife, embracing social ridicule and accepting a life he did not plan. This required tremendous courage. What costly obedience may God be asking of me? Where am I being called to do God's will, despite the potential for misunderstanding or personal cost?

God with us.' This is the ultimate truth that should help us in all circumstances. How does the reality of 'God with us' impact my current situation – my fears, my relationships, my future? Do I live as if God is truly present in the midst of my ordinary, and sometimes messy, life?

ARCHDIOCESAN COMMISSION FOR ECOLOGY, JUSTICE & PEACE

'Let no one be lost! Let all be saved! This is what our God wants, this is his Kingdom, and this is the goal of his actions in the world. As Christmas approaches, we too want to embrace more strongly his dream, while being steadfast and faithful in our commitment. We know that even in the face of the greatest challenges, we are not alone: the Lord is near, he walks with us, and with him at our side, something beautiful and joyful will always happen.'

When Joseph woke up, he did what the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took Mary home as his wife. But he did not consummate their marriage until she gave birth to a son. And he gave him the name Jesus. Matthew 1:24-25 (NIV)
